FLOATING PALACE OF PACIFIC COAST GOES UP IN FLAMES

MAN FINDS PEARL AND BRIDE IN AN OYSTER.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 29.—Other persons have been known to bite into an oyster and discover a pearl, but to find a pearl and a bride and claim a $5,000 legacy all through the same little bivalve is an accomplishment.

Ralston Foster did it and yesterday he was married by Court Commissioner Gallick to Miss Gladys Malcomb, who served the cupid oyster in a Denver restaurant two months ago.

Foster told this story yesterday: "Mother died when I was 18 years old leaving me a $5,000 bequest, to be claimed only in the event I was married before the age of 25 years. I earned little for girls, and might have 'stuck' if I had not ordered blue points in a Denver restaurant.

"My teeth clashed with something hard, and my exclamation attracted the waitress. She was sympathetic and pretty, and laughed with me in my predicament. Then we discovered that the hard substance was a pearl, which later was valued at $500. Guess that's all there is to the story."

"Not quite," Mrs. Foster said, and she extended a hand which bore the $500 pearl in an engagement ring. The couple met in St. Paul by arrangement and were married, leaving soon afterward for Boston, where Foster is an automobile salesman. The mother's estate is in Connecticut.

He is popular throughout his native state, is known as a prominent attorney and is declared to be a good mixer.

"BUTCH" WANTS STATUE BACK

"One-Day Millionaire" Tells Atlantic City to Pay Express Charges.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Sept. 29.—John Jay (Butch) McDevitt, press agent premier of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., and self-acclaimed candidate for the presidential chair, respectfully requests the return of his "famous" statue. He further issues orders, as to its transportation, and warns against any defacement. In his humorous communication, McDevitt sends his regards to "all the good fellows and a few of my old girls."

McDevitt made two whirlwind appearances in Atlantic City. He first gained notoriety on his visit during his "million-dollar" outing and on his second trip came in search of a "better half." McDevitt failed in his latter mission, some dozen applicants for his hand failing to qualify. It was on the last-named trip that McDevitt "honored" the city by the presentation of his life-sized statue.

In his letter to City Clerk A. J. McNamee, Butch said:

"I will expect that the city pay the express on the statue, as the original is broke, and if it comes C. O. D. I will have to make a good speech or rob some poor devil to get the required amount.

"Give my regards to the mayor and our good friend, the ex-mayor, and also to the commodore and all the other good fellows, and a few of my old girls. I will be leaving soon for New York on my presidential trip and will while in the big town think

HEN PECKS OUT EYE OF WOMAN ASLEEP ON PORCH.

KOKOMO, Ind., Sept. 23.—Mrs. J. H. Friar, living on a farm near here, has lost the sight of her right eye as a result of a hen pecking her in the eye when she was asleep. Mrs. Friar and her husband, expecting to find sleeping out of doors more comfortable than in the house, took their bed to the porch. She was awakened one morning when the hen pecked her. The attending physician said the sight had been destroyed.

MAKES GOOD ITS PROMISE

When the Chevrolet Motor Company first offered its Model "FOUR-NINETY" Touring Car to automobile dealers and to the public at the New York Show in January, 1915, with electric lights and starter, at the then sensational price of $550, the management stated frankly that the name "FOUR-NINETY" really meant something and that, whenever the company's manufacturing facilities and production justified it, the price on this car, electrically equipped, should be $490.

Since the above date, the Chevrolet Company has completed the best motor plant in this country; has built and equipped an up-to-the-minute axle plant; has acquired a complete transmission plant, and has in operation seven large assembling plants. The Chevrolet Company has now reached a volume of production which enables it to make good its original promise.

We are pleased to advise that the 1917 contracts, which are now going out to Chevrolet dealers, present the Model "FOUR-NINETY" to the public at $490, fully equipped, with a standard, two-unit electric lighting and starting system built into the car.

THIS MAKES THE MODEL "FOUR-NINETY" THE LOWEST-PRICED ELECTRICALLY LIGHTED AND STARTED AUTOMOBILE IN THE MARKET TODAY.
